Light.

The night has a thousand eyes,
And the day but one;
Yet the light of the bright world dies
With the dying sun.

The mind has a thousand eyes,
And the heart but one;
Yet the light of the whole life dies
When love is done.

They do things queer in Pennsylvania. They imprison or exile tramps or vagrants because they will not work, and have just fined a citizen for working too much and sent him to jail because he wouldn't pay. They caught him working in his garden on Sunday.

STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISE GIVEN.

A $1,000 CASH FORFEIT PUT UP.

COMPANY TO BE KNOWN AS THE GREENSBORO ELECTRIC CO.

They Also Want to Furnish Electric Lights for the City and Pump the Water—Where the Proposed Railways to Run.—The Meeting of the Aldermen Last Night a Busy One—License Refused to E. G. West, John Barker and R. S. Small Mayor's Salary Fixed at $900—Other Matters of Interest.

The Board of Aldermen met last night in regular session at 8 o'clock. Mayor Osborn in the chair. All the members of the Board were present except Alderman Ellington. The proceedings of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Alderman Denny stated that the matter of the salary of the mayor had been overlooked at the previous meeting, and he moved that his salary be fixed at $900. Alderman Helms amended that motion by offering a substitute to the effect that the salary be made $1,200, and the mayor be made ex-officio chairman of the different committees. Amendment received no second and a vote was taken on the original motion, which carried.

The mayor then appointed the following committees:

Finance—Merrimon, Chairman; Ellington, Helms, Sherwood.

Water works—Sergeant, Chairman; Merrimon, Bain, Joyner.

Police—Elam, chairman; Phipps, Sergeant.

Cemetery—Phipps, chairman; Elam, Denny, Lewis.

Firemen—Helms, chairman; Denny, Elam, Lewis.

Sewerage—Ellington, chairman; Sherwood, Lewis, Joyner.

Street Lights—Sherwood, chairman; Phipps, Merrimon, Helms.

Market—Bain, Chairman; Denny, Helms, Sergeant.

Printing—Lewis, chairman; Elam, Glascock Phipps.

School—Joyner, chairman; Ellington, Bain, Glascock.

Street—Denny, chairman; Joyner, Merrimon, Ellington.

Purchasing—Glascock, chairman; Sergeant, Sherwood, Bain.

Maj. Steadman appeared before the Board, presenting a petition from various people living or doing business in the vicinity of the stand at which application has been made to retail liquors by Mr. E. G. West, and praying the honorable Board of Aldermen not to grant license to Mr. West, stating that it would be injurious to their interests to have a saloon there.

Ex-mayor Z. V. Taylor appeared for Mr. West, and made a speech in behalf of his client, stating that the block in which the proposed saloon was to be opened, was the best in the city for that purpose.

Alderman Glascock moved that the application be not granted. An aye and nay vote was taken which resulted as follows: Ayes, Glascock, Bain, Denny, Elam, Lewis, Merrimon, Joyner; Nays, Phipps, Helms, Sherwood, Sergeant. Application was refused.

A committee of ladies living on North Elm street appeared before the Board, and asked that the sewerage be extended out that street. The matter was referred to sewerage committee, this being the way such matters are attended to.

The application of Mr. John Barker was next taken up. Col. J. A. Barringer appeared in behalf of Mr. Barker, but said as the license question had been pretty well discussed already, he would not take up the Board's time further. Alderman Sergeant moved that the application be granted. An aye and nay vote was taken, with the following result: Ayes, Phipps, Elam, Helms, Sherwood, Sergeant, total 5. Nays, Glascock, Bain, Denny, Lewis, Merrimon, Joyner, total 6. Application refused. In connection with the granting of the license to Mr. Barker, two petitions were filed with the Board, one for the granting, and the other praying that it be not done. The application of R. S. Small was next taken up. The place specified in this application was on South Davie street, opposite Mr. W. O. Stratford's place of business. On motion of Alderman Sergeant the application was refused, the vote being unanimous.

Mayor Osborn stated that several cases of small pox had been discovered since his election as mayor, and upon his own authority he had put the matter in the hands of Dr. Harrison, and stated that the amount of Dr. Harrison's bill for services rendered was $25. It was moved and carried that the bill be allowed.

Alderman Sergeant moved that as so much business was before the Board that some of it be postponed to an adjourned meeting to be held Saturday night, and that when the Board adjourned, it do so to meet Saturday night. Carried.

Alderman Denny moved that the election of a policeman be gone into, and if there were any other officers to be elected, that their election be deferred until the adjourned meeting.

Attorney Scales called the attention of the Board to the fact that the new charter provided for the election of a cemetery commission to look after the cemetery, and see that it was properly cared for and beautified.

Applications were read for the office of policeman as follows: A. G. Alexander, J. H. Merritt, J. L. Montgomery, Flavius Keith, T. F. Causey, R. V. Skeens, E. McKnight, N. A. Lewis, R. C. Whittington. The first ballot showed, Merritt, 4; Alexander, 2; Lewis, 2; Whittington, 2; Skeens, 1. Several ballots were taken without a change, and it was moved and carried that the election of the policeman be carried over to the next meeting. Policeman Merritt was allowed to come before the Board and make a statement concerning a charge that he had been smoking in the reception room of the Southern. The time referred to was when he went into the room to remove obnoxious characters, and had a cigar in his mouth. Was in the room only about two minutes. A letter was read signed by Ticket Agent J. B. Graham, and Assistant R. H. DeButts, stating that Mr. Merritt had made a good officer while stationed at the depot.

Ex-mayor Taylor appeared before the Board and stated that he represented a company to be known as the Greensboro Electric Company, the promoters of which were Messrs. John Kerr, and M. D. Barr, of New York, and that they wanted the city to give them franchise for the operation of a street railway; to extend from the corporate limits on Asheboro street along that street to Fayetteville, thence to the depot, from the depot to Church street, Church to Summit avenue, and out that avenue to the city limits, with a branch extending from the court house out West Market to Mendenhall, thence Mendenhall to Spring Garden, and out that street to the city limits.

With this franchise the company also wishes to make a contract with the city to furnish electric lights, and to operate the pumping station at the water works. A concise statement of the proposition appears elsewhere.

The franchise provides that the said company shall begin work within six months, and shall have completed, and in operation five miles of track in eighteen months, or they will forfeit $1,000. This forfeit was put up last night, in the shape of a cashier's check on a Greensboro bank.

The scale of prices to be charged are, school children under 12 years of age 2 1-2 cents, over 12 years 3 1-8 cents, adults 5 cents.

The franchise was granted the company, and the proposition regarding the lighting of the city and the pumping of the water, was referred to the water and light committee with power, if they found the contract a satisfactory one, to accept it. The franchise is for 30 years, the contract for 10 years.

To Preach Annual Sermon.

Dr. T. N. Ivey, editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, passed through the city this afternoon going to Siler City, where he will preach tomorrow the annual sermon before the graduating class of Siler City Institute.

Mr. W. B. Trogdon, of Reidsville, is in the city laying out and plotting some property in the western part of the city for Mr. J. Turner Tate. The property will soon be put on the market.

A MOCK HERO.

A Baltimore Man Ties Himself and Calls for the Police.

Baltimore, May 21.—Desiring to be as the hero of a sensational robbery with an alleged robber, Charles A. Birch, cashier of the Michigan Mutual Insurance Company in the Atlantic Trust Company building, bound his hands with a cord, pretended he had been bound and gagged, and stirred up the police and detective department last night. The young man was taken to police headquarters at midnight and subjected to a searching questioning. He stuck close to his original story, but in answer to several minor statements afterwards, it was found to be false. He was thoroughly sweated by Captain Humphrey, and finally broke down and admitted that he had bound and partially gagged himself. He could give no reason why he had acted as he did, but the police believe that his sole motive was to pose as a hero of a sensational encounter.

One point of the alleged robbery which caused the officers to doubt Birch's story was that the alleged robber had taken nothing from the office. The method which Birch adopted to be bound was to first tie a loose knot around his wrist with the cord. Then he sat down on the floor and pushed his feet through the loop made by his extended arms, thus bringing his hands back to his body and tightening the cord. Before doing this he wrapped a towel loosely around his head. It was learned to day that this was not the first time that Birch has claimed to have had trouble with burglars. Recently he told Mr. J. Burkle Brown, agent of the Michigan Life Insurance Company, his employer, that burglars had entered Birch's father's home. This story was found to be a falsehood.

A HAPPY CROWD.

Trinity Sunday School, Durham, Runs Excursion to Winston.

The Trinity Methodist Sunday school of Durham passed through the city this morning about nine o'clock, in an excursion train, bound to Winston. The train carried six cars, five of them filled to the limit with happy children and pleased grown folks. The excursion was marked by the entire absence of the characteristics which usually accompany an excursion from that place, namely, the rowdiness attendant upon the presence of a factory contingent. Trinity church is one of the richest churches in North Carolina Methodism. The purpose of the excursion was to raise funds for the purchase of a piano and the amount netted by the trip was something over a hundred dollars.

Col. Morehead Writes.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

While I have not the honor of belonging to the fraternity, yet I note with pleasure that the journalists of the State rejoice in the fact that the Venerable R. B. Creecy is the nestor of North Carolina's public press. Well may they rejoice. Mr. Creecy has been the intelligent, ardent and affectionate observer and chronicler of the State's history for nearly a century past. With more truthfulness than perhaps any other living man he can say of this history too—"magna pars fui." The fact that he now has in the hands of his publishers, Messrs. Edwards & Broughton, his "Grandfathers Tales of North Carolina History" shows that his zeal knows no abatement. It is allowable I would most respectfully, most urgently suggest and request that Drs. Hufham, Battle, Kingsbury and others of the "boys" whip up and like Mr. Creecy continue to add to their numerous valuable contributions. Write, gentlemen, write. Talk—that is, your talk, is excellent but unless it be by pen and ink it too frequently, also, perishes with the breath of its utterance. We are glad to learn that Dr. McIver, of the State Normal and Industrial College, has subscribed for fifteen copies at $1 each upon delivery. This shows that we have the right man in the right place and that in this as in other respects, Dr. McIver is a public benefactor and the wise conductor of a public institution of learning.

School and libraries, public and private and individuals ought to subscribe at once for this valuable book.

Yours truly,
JOSEPH M. MOREHEAD.

EXCLUDES REPORTERS.

No Newspaper Men to Be Allowed to Hear His Majesty's Speeches.

Berlin, May 23.—Emperor William has issued stringent orders henceforth to exclude newspaper reporters from all public and semi-public functions where the Emperor intends to speak. The Emperor's entourage and the police have been given instructions to render impossible the stenographic reporting of his speeches of the taking of notes thereon. The Emperor is said to be extremely wroth that his address to the Emperor Alexander Regiment became public in spite of the great precautions taken to prevent it.

Emperor William is further reported to have said that the utterances he makes when within the circles of his officers are not intended for the public, especially as often he does not then mince matters, but talks confidentially. The Emperor has expressed the conviction that the more important of his public speeches should be printed only according to their general drift and not verbatim, and that such summaries of his speeches be given to the Reichsanzeiger and the semi-official bureau.

The German papers, commenting on this matter, say it is impossible to carry it out, since among the Emperor's guests there will always be some one to inform the press as to what has been said, and necessarily incorrect.

Emperor William has ordered that these instructions first go into effect at the unveiling of the Bismarck monument, which occurs June 3.

FORGOT TO ASK.

Golfers Use Rockefeller's Land in Greenwich Without Permission and Get Shut Out.

Greenwich, Conn., May 23.—William Rockefeller's lands here will hereafter be used for pasture and not for golfing, if his superintendent has anything to say about it. The millionaire owns many acres in different parts of the town and as he resides in Tarrytown, a small company of golf enthusiasts thought it no harm when they staked out golf course on the three lots adjoining each other near the Milbank estate. In this amateur club were several well known New York business men. They thought that Mr. Rockefeller would not care.

The reckoned without Supt. Luxon, who looks after Mr. Rockefeller's interest and Assistant Superintendent George H. Sniffen. The lots were rented by Liveryman Frank R. Mosher and Truckman Joseph Bartlett for pasturage.

Messrs. Luxon and Sniffen went to the fields to examine their condition. They found that the stone wall along the lane had been torn down and the grass trampled. Little flags here and there told the story of golfing and they swooped down upon the flags, which disappeared from view. The wall was rebuilt and wire fencing put up. The golfers have tried to get permission to play again, but have been unsuccessful.

Claims to be Helen Gould's Kin.

Boston, Mass., May 23.—A roughly-dressed man has been calling at Back Bay homes, declaring that he is the nephew of Helen Gould and in great need and in earnest search of honest work. Let folks have been busy answering calls of this persistent man for several days, and today the police gathered him into the toils. He is Thomas R. McCormick. He is 34 years old and lives at 23 Norman street. He is a laborer, fresh from Ireland.

McCormick pondered over Miss Gould's goodness until he brought himself to believe that he was her nephew. His mind is crazed by the craving for the luxuries which he thinks he could have if he were her kin. Several days ago he started out to see what and how much he might obtain by making the relationship claim and asking opulent society folks for employment. The police were informed that he was crazy. He is now at the city prison.

The difference between a comedy and a tragedy is merely in the way it is acted.

W. C. T. U. DEPARTMENT.

The Annual State Convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Littleton June 5-19. A full attendance is especially desired. The railroads will give one and one-third fare for the round trip. The sessions of the Convention will be held in the College building and the delegates will be entertained there. One afternoon will be devoted to a drive to the springs a few miles away.

Let every white ribboner, and every one else who possible can, be there.

A French newspaper recently tells of a young man who had been in the habit of cleaning the stem of his pipe with a knitting needle. One day he accidentally ran the needle into his finger. His hand and arm commenced swelling and finally he became so ill that his arm had to be amputated, but even this failed to arrest the poison and his life is now despaired of.

This serves to show the deadly effect of taking nicotine into the system. Of course this is an extreme case and a similar one might not occur again in fifty years, but think of the danger that the habitual smoker runs every day. But they will smoke.

A stringent anti-cigarette law passed the Illinois legislature April 22, and is now in the hands of the senate committee. A similar bill has also passed the lower house of the Michigan legislature. It has the active support of Governor Bliss and will undoubtedly become a law.

The anti-saloon league in Buffalo is helping "clean house," in anticipation of the Pan-American guests. At the opening of the exposition sixty-five concert saloons were abolished. The anti-saloon league led the crusade against the concert saloon, which resulted in the federation of thirty-four different organizations, together with one hundred churches calling upon the mayor and city council to pass an ordinance forbidding the licensing of any more concert saloons after May, 1901. The ordinance was unanimously passed.

At the launching of the new steamship Denver, at Wilmington, Del., on April 4, the Japanese custom of releasing white doves from a cage as the steamer started down the ways was followed, instead of breaking a bottle of wine over the low. Miss Mary Mallory, daughter of the the President of the Mallory line, performed the christening by releasing doves.

Shot to Death.

Wilmington Messenger.

In Blood Block alley last night about 8 o'clock or a few minutes thereafter a deliberate murder was committed by Jim Hawkins a negro, who fired three bullets from a revolver into the body of John Brown, also colored. The tragedy occurred in a house occupied by two negro women, Laura Lenox and Maggie Bland, and it is only a few steps from fourth street. Two policemen on their beats had passed the alley only two or three minutes when they heard three or four pistol shots in rapid succession. They ran back to the alley and found a number of negroes coming from the alley or gathering to see what the trouble was. In the yard back of the house they found John Brown lying on the ground unconscious from three wounds, but the murderer had fled. After doing the deed he ran out of the back door and jumped over the fence and went out Bladen street, going towards the woods probably by Smith's creek bridge.

Poisoned by Absorption

POISON OAK, POISON IVY, BARBER'S ITCH, LEAD AND BRASS POISONING, ETC.

Through the pores of the skin many poisons are absorbed into the blood, deranging the circulation and affecting the constitution as quickly and seriously as those generated within the system. Just under the skin are innumerable hair-like blood vessels, and connecting these with the skin are millions of small tubes or glands, through which the poison is conveyed to the blood system. During the spring and summer, while the skin is most active and the pores well open, we are much more liable to be affected by Poison Oak and Ivy and other dangerous plants. Workers in brass, copper, lead and zinc have their health impaired and the blood supply poisoned through the absorption of fine particles of these metals and the acids used in polishing and cleaning them. Inhaling the fumes of lead give painters that pallid, waxy appearance of the skin. Barber's Itch is another disease that reaches the blood through the skin, and is a most obstinate one when it becomes firmly fixed in the system. After the poison has reached the blood and been disseminated throughout the system it is too late to resort to local applications. In many cases the blood is affected simultaneously with the appearance of the rash or eruption on the skin, and all efforts should be directed to the purification and building up of the blood. Ugly eruptions and sores will continue to break out in spite of salves, washes, soaps or other external treatment.

S. S. S. is especially recommended for poisons of this character. So completely does it destroy the effects of the Oak and Ivy that there is no possibility of its reappearance, and it is equally as efficacious in brass or lead poisoning or Barber's Itch; building up and purifying the blood and driving out of the circulation impurities of every kind, and removing every blemish, sore or eruption from the skin. There is no substitute for S. S. S.; it is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the safest and best in all constitutional or blood diseases.

Our Medical Consultation Department.—If you desire any special information or advice about your case, write our physicians, explaining your condition, and they will carefully consider what you have to say and you will receive a prompt reply. Our physicians have made a study of blood and skin diseases, and you can have the benefit of their experience and skill without any cost to you whatever. Don't hesitate to write fully about yourself, as nothing you say goes beyond our office. We have a very interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases, which we will be glad to mail free.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPH PLANS.

Professor Moore Reports on the Progress Made at Government Stations.

Prof. Willis L. Moore, head of the weather bureau, has returned from an inspection of the wireless telegraph stations in Virginia and North Carolina, and has reported to Secretary Wilson the result of his observations. He found that the experimental work is progressing satisfactorily between Hatteras and Cape Henry, where elaborate plans have been laid out for important experiments.

At Cape Henry an excellent plant has been established for the physical and mechanical development and investigation of the fundamental principles of wireless telegraphy. Signals are being exchanged daily between these two stations, and messages can be transmitted at any time, though there is no necessity for exchange of messages as yet. These two stations are 47 miles apart, with no land between them, and the course is regarded as an ideal one for the experiments. It is intended to keep this section for experimental and research work which will be prosecuted vigorously throughout next summer.

The next great problem to be solved, according to Chief Moore, is the differentiation of the wireless message so that the message sent shall be read only by the stations for which they are intended and not interfered with by the crossing of messages for other stations.

LONDON'S HUGE HOME PLANS.

County Council Contemplates Constructing Colony Capable of Caring for 42,000 Workmen.

The London county council has decided to buy 225 acres of land on which to build workmen's houses to accommodate 42,000 persons. The cost will be £1,500,000.

The houses will be erected in Tottenham, a northeastern suburb of London, where considerable building land is available. It is proposed to erect 5,770 cottages, accommodating 42,500 persons. The rents will range from six shillings a week for a cottage of three rooms and a kitchen to half a guinea for five rooms and a kitchen. Workmen can obtain railway tickets in this district at one-fourth the ordinary fares.

The scheme does not involve a removal of the London slums. It only touches the slum problem indirectly, but the tenants of the slums will succeed to the tenements vacated by those who now occupy the new cottages.

The plan, once started, will be self-supporting and probably will pay a small dividend.

MOTHER'S STRANGE DELUSION

Woman Believes Her Child's Soul Dwells in the Body of a Dog.

Mrs. M. E. Halpruner, of Alameda, Cal., is fixed in the belief that the soul of her dead daughter, Lillian May Halpruner, dwells in the body of a little spitz dog she possesses. "I treat the dog as I would my own child," said the mother.

On the birthday anniversary of the dead girl, a year ago, she refrained for the first time from going to the cemetery to strew flowers on the child's grave. She had been told a snow-white spitz pup was to be given to her by a neighbor, and went to receive the gift. The white pup ran away from her, but in its stead darted out and nestled to her a golden-haired pup.

"At once I saw my daughter's gestures duplicated by the dog," she said. "I knew that twice in seven years Lillian's soul had come back to be near me. The soul of my daughter entered the body of my golden spitz dog Earl of Glenower, a year ago, and I treated him as I would my child."

VANDERBILT A DOG KILLER.

Automobile "White Ghost" Reduces Long Island's Canine Population.

William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and his White Ghost automobile are fast becoming popular throughout Long Island among men who are well supplied with dogs and not overloaded with money. He was fortunate enough to strike a large, homely yellow mongrel dog with his automobile near Elmhurst, a few days ago, and he politely came back to look for the owner. He found Murdo Scurry, the Long Island railroad flagman, at the crossing, sadly contemplating a few tufts of yellow hair, all that was left of the dog. Before the episode the dog was worth 29 cents.

"Very sorry," said Mr. Vanderbilt, offering Scurry a ten dollar bill. "Will this make it right?"

"Certainly, thanks," replied Murdo. The news has flown from Hunter's Point to Hempstead. White Ghost is a profitable dog killer. Dog pounds are being emptied of their prisoners.

Glimpses of an Ancient Race. The recent expedition of Messrs. MacIver and Wilkin in Algeria has thrown light upon the prehistoric connection between Libya and Egypt. Resemblances of pottery are regarded as establishing the fact that the ancestors of the modern Berbers had close relations with prehistoric Egypt. The explorers say the Berbers are essentially a white race and are the true representatives of white Libyans pictured in the old Egyptian wall paintings.

CAUGHT A DREADFUL COLD.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased."

"Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered," so writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSOM, VA., Dec. 31. I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Bacc-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

WINE OF CARDUI

are those weighed down by mental depression. Men rise in this world through buoyant nerve force. The loss of this force daily drags down to failure some of the world's brightest minds. Such a condition is commonly known as Nervous Debility. When you lose self-confidence and feel your strength, energy and nerve force are slipping away, it is high time you seek sensible aid. You prefer health and success to misery and failure.

have no equal as a nerve restorer. A couple of boxes will dispel that heavy feeling; the unnatural weariness disappears and replaces languor with new force and vigor of body and brain. Six boxes will cure any ordinary case of nervous debility. If not, you get your money back. $1.00 per box; 6 for $5.00, mailed in plain package. Book free. PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, Ohio.

PREVENTED A TRAGEDY.

Timely information given Mrs. Geo. Long, of New Stratisville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

"THE ONE MAN POWER."

The objection so often urged against the pardoning power of the Governor is that it is a "one man's power, and should not exist, on the ground that no one man ought to supersede the work of a jury of twelve. The following article, from the Raleigh Post, presents the opposite view, and the correct one, we believe, so clearly that we copy it all:

The Gastonia News says:

"The Democratic press of the State called attention to the great number of prisoners pardoned by Governor Russell. They declared that he was turning all his friends out of prison and were glad to see Gov. Aycock grasp the helm of State in the hope that pardons would not be so freely granted. But we are of the opinion from the reports from Raleigh that Governor Aycock is also issuing too many pardons. Governor Aycock is a warm-hearted man, and it is feared that he is allowing the appeals of attorneys and friends of prisoners to secure their release. It is very rare that the law makes a mistake, and for the decisions of courts to thus be trampled upon tends to lower the dignity of the law in public estimation. It holds out hopes of escape from punishment to would-be criminals. Wise laws, justly administered is the safety of free institutions."

In regard to the criticisms of the Governor, the present as well as his predecessors, we would commend to the critics the careful reading of the last Message sent to a legislature of the State by Gov. Vance—1879. No executive was more severely criticised for his exercise of this pardoning power than Governor Vance, and no man met either his duty or his critics with more praiseworthy courage.

Coming to the present: Gov. Aycock has not yet interposed his prerogative to stay punishment of a single convict. Executive clemency, as it is called, but in truth the exercise of the judicial power conferred upon the Governor by the people for the very purpose of mitigating the severity of the law when his sense of justice deems it proper—this clemency or judicial power has not been resorted to where in the beneficiary has not undergone more or less punishment for the offence of which he or she was convicted. The law prescribes punishment, more or less severe, for offences against society. This law is violated, a jury of twelve citizens, upon the hearing of the evidence, agree the party charged to be guilty, and by virtue of this agreement, the Judge—the single individual—fixes the punishment as the law permits and his own judgment may dictate. Circumstances existing at the time of trial, but not available, perhaps at that time, but more probable conditions which arise after trial and judgment, can only be appealed to the judicial power of the Executive. All circumstances and conditions, incident to the cause and the trial or arising subsequently, including the punishment already suffered in its relation to the offence, are and can be only considered by the Governor, and the judgment of this one man is exercised to confirm or mitigate the judgment of the other one man—the trial Judge.

The Judge on the bench who hears the evidence does his duty as the law directs and his judgment dictates and likewise the Judge in Executive office does his duty after careful and patient hearing of the reasons given and conditions existing as the law not only permits but directs and his honest judgment dictates. Juries may not err as the guilty, but it is not just as possible that the Judge—who alone fixes the punishment—may impose a sentence which, if carried to its full length, would result in injustice rather than justice?

We submit it comes with ill grace for those, experts though they be in determining great questions, who have heard no evidence at or subsequent to trial, and know none of the circumstances or conditions connected with a case, to indulge in indiscriminate condemnation of the use of the pardoning power. The Governor may exercise his power in case this writer should decline to, as have Governors refused to exercise it when we thought it ought to be exercised. And in each of these instances, the Governor may have been and may be right. Believing in their honesty we had and have no criticism.

BALTIMORE MAN ACCUSED.

Harry L. Leach Arrested for Alleged Implication in Father Reigel's Murder.

Baltimore, Md., May 23.—Harry L. Leach, a resident of this city, was arrested and turned over to Marshal Hamilton, of the Baltimore police department today on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of the Rev. Charles P. Reigel, pastor of the Roman Catholic Church of the Presentation, at Cheltenham, Montgomery County, Pa.

The dead body of the priest was found in the hallway of a house in Philadelphia on January 5. The theory of the police was that he was the victim of knockout drops, administered by some men with whom he had been drinking.

The police of Baltimore were requested by the Philadelphia authorities to look out for a young man named Harry Leach, who was supposed to have been one of the men seen in Father Reigel's company shortly before his death, and who is said to belong in Baltimore.

It is said that Leach admitted having been in Philadelphia at the time Father Reigel's body was found, but denied any connection with the murder.

MUSICAL TASTE OF MONKEYS.

According to This Authority It Runs to the Bagpipes of Which They Are Very Fond.

Now that Prof. Garner is instructing us in the language of monkeys, it becomes a matter of family interest, as it were, to note any peculiarities of development in the animals from which the evolutionists maintain that the human race descended or, more properly speaking, ascended. It may be classed with the study of genealogy. The author of "Studies in Corsica" touches on monkey music in speaking of the bagpipe.

"The well-known boast of patriotic Scotchmen that the bagpipe is sacred to Scotland, and speaking a language which only Scotchmen feel, is as slight in foundation as it is dubious in import. In Syria, in Persia, in Afghanistan and India, in fact, throughout the south of both Europe and Asia, the bagpipe is known and is enthusiastically cultivated.

"In India, if I may believe some soldier friends, the pipes attached to the Highland regiments are far more enjoyed by the native population than the best brass bands of other battalions.

"Nay, so much akin to our original nature is the dulcet music of the simple bagpipe that it is the one sort of music which stirs the monkeys. For, according to the testimony of the same officers, the Indian monkeys, although unmoved by bands, are so powerfully fascinated by the Scottish pibroch that when a detachment of Highlanders is marching to the pipes, and when the roadway traversed is lined with trees, the monkeys will follow the troops with signs of delight, scrambling after them from tree to tree. From facts such as these one cannot doubt that the bagpipe is one of our oldest instruments."

Exciting Race Between Kangaroos
That Had Been Doped with Whisky.

"The most exciting race I ever witnessed was between three kangaroos," said J. L. Stevenson, of Sydney, Australia, reports the Denver Post.

"A friend of mine, Henry Roberts, has a huge plantation out in the bush in Queensland. One day he said to me: 'Steve, did you ever see a real good kangaroo race?' I had seen the great hoppers playing round the house, but never a race. He disappeared and I dozed off to sleep in my hammock. An hour later I was awakened by the shouts of my host. 'Look! Look!' he cried, in great excitement. 'Here they come!' Glancing out over the broad green pasture north of the house, I beheld the kangaroos. The three were flying over the short grass, neck and neck.

"As they drew nearer I saw that ribbons were streaming from their necks. Red, white and blue were the colors. They approached at astonishing speed, making straight toward Roberts, who held aloft a small basket filled with some vegetable. At last they reached us, a big brown kangaroo with the red ribbon slightly in the lead.

"Roberts emptied the basket before them, and some sugar beets fell to the ground. Eagerly the kangaroos devoured them and an odor of liquor arose. Roberts had fed them beets soaked in whisky, had led them to the edge of the pasture behind the gate and then retraced his steps to the house, calling his pets. At a signal one of his men had lowered the bars, and the intoxicated kangaroos, greedy for more of the strange beets, rushed after their master."

STRANGE MOUNTAIN TRIBE.

Discovery of an Unknown Race of Aborigines in the Wilds of Borneo.

A strange tribe has just been discovered in Borneo by Dr. A. W. Nieuwenhuis, the distinguished Dutch explorer. As he was traveling through the district of Sarawak he heard from his guides that at a little distance there was a mountain tribe which no European or American had ever visited, and straightway he went thither, and in a day or two found himself at the headquarters of these unknown aborigines. At once he saw that they differed from all other natives of Borneo, and he spent some weeks in acquainting himself with their curious customs and also in studying their country, which is entirely unknown to foreign travelers. In this way he accumulated a mass of new material, which he intends to give to the world at an early date in the form of a book.

This is the second journey which Dr. Nieuwenhuis has taken to Central Borneo. He first went there in 1895 and explored the sources of the Kapuas and Mahakkam rivers, after which he returned to Europe, where he at once obtained an appointment as director of the Botanical garden at Buitenzorg. In 1899 he went again to Borneo, intending to thoroughly explore the interior of the country, and it is claimed that in this task he has succeeded better than any previous traveler.

If a Woman

wants to put out a fire she doesn't heap on oil and wood. She throws on water, knowing that water quenches fire. When a woman wants to get well from diseases peculiar to her sex, she should not add fuel to the fire already burning her life away. She should not take worthless drugs and potions composed of harmful narcotics and opiates. They do not check the disease—they do not cure it—they simply add fuel to the fire.

Bradfield's Female Regulator should be taken by every woman or girl who has the slightest suspicion of any of the ailments which afflict women. They will simply be wasting time until they take it. The Regulator is a purifying, strengthening tonic, which gets at the roots of the disease and cures the cause. It does not drug the pain, it eradicates it. It stops falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, inflammation and periodical suffering, irregular, scanty or painful menstruation; and by doing all this drives away the hundred and one aches and pains which drain health and beauty, happiness and good temper from many a woman's life. It is the one remedy above all others which every woman should know about and use.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a salve was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in the bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by C. E. Holton's drug store.

Epilepsy

weakens the body and degrades the mind. It saps the nervous strength that is the source of all health, and perverts the functions of every organ. Because of its stubborn nature, it is often called incurable. This is not true. There is one medicine that never fails to check the nervous spasms and give new strength to the entire system.

"My little girl had epilepsy so bad that in one day she suffered seventy-one fits. The doctors gave her up to die, but I began giving her Dr. Miles' Nervine and now she is perfectly well. It took five bottles to effect a cure."

Judgment.

Whose bad opinion do you fear?

Whose good opinion do you want?

The most important thing to you in your business is customers.

The strongest adjunct in making customers is the way you impress them. A large part of the impressing is done in the kind of printing they get from you. The only printing that you have may be your stationery, envelopes, cards and other pieces of what are called commercial printing.

Even in these things it is possible to exercise good taste, as we can soon show you if you will examine some of our samples of printing.

If you advertise, if only to the extent of a small folder or an occasional booklet, you should anticipate and discount the judgment of your customers by laying before them printing that is refreshing, distinct, original, clean and direct.

There are all kinds of printing in every town.

There is only one good kind.

One piece of good printing is worth a hundred pieces that are fair to middling.

You cannot afford to do anything but the best. Therefore, you cannot afford not to know our ways and our prices.

Will you come to us, or shall we go to you?

BUSINESS WOMEN AS WIVES.

Tact in Fiscal Affairs Does Not Spoil the Woman of To-Day for Matrimony.

A feminine writer does not regard the business woman as unfitted for the duties of a wife and mother. She regards it as a matter of personal taste upon the part of the man in the case. If he wants a clinging vine, some one who will put him on a pedestal and be grateful that fate has given her a god—usually tin—let him keep away from the business woman. But if he wants a chum who will take him for what he is—and in spite of it—who will be a wife and pal, and will be a solid comfort to him, let him choose a woman who has been out into the business world and gained a broader view of the world and of man.

Such a one will take a man for just what he is worth—no foolish ideals about his greatness; just a plain man—good fellow who won't bluff, because he knows he can't, and they will be happy, because neither expects too much.

Business never unfitted any woman for matrimony who was originally fitted for it. She can go through a business career without any loss of any kind. It rests entirely with her and she can gain much which will be of incalculable advantage in making her life happy and that of the man who gets her. Business broadens her and gives her common sense—or, to be more polite, more common sense.

The King Still a Club Member.
King Edward VII., contrary to widely circulated reports, has not resigned from any of the London clubs of which, as prince of Wales, he was a member. He has, however, retired from the committees of the Marlborough on which he had been serving.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM. QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parson & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommend it so highly that I thought I would try it. I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." or sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

Skin affections will readily disappear by using De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Look out for counterfeits. If you get De Witt's you will get good results. It is the quick and positive cure for piles.
HOWARD GARDNER.

A TESTIMONIAL FROM OLD ENGLAND.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mrs. William Savory, of Warrington, England. "It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." Sent by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

MOTHER AND CHILD

Let the mother take Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil for the two; it is almost never superfluous.

One can eat for two; but nourishing two is a different thing; it implies a degree of interior strength not often found in woman of either extreme.

Luxurious people are not very strong by habit, and over-worked people are weak from exhaustion in some of their functions. Between the two is the happy mean; but how many women have plenty of life for two?

The emulsion is almost never superfluous.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.
